

Name: _____ Date: _____

REMEMBER

"In Flanders fields the poppies blow, between the crosses, row on row..."

Papaver rhoeas (common names include: field poppy, Flanders poppy, corn poppy, red poppy) is an annual herbaceous species of flowering plant native to Europe, West Asia, and North Africa. Since World War I, this bright red poppy has symbolized the shed blood of fallen soldiers. As you color this picture, remember the sacrifice they made for your country.